Welcome Back!
Review of Day 1 and
Preview of Day 2
2016 Leadership Forum

Remember how . . . .

- Mary Beth Blankenship and Jennifer Sharpe said that the key to implementing LDC in their schools was providing support
- Amin Salaam said that he saw his job as being a “cheerleader” and selling his teachers on MDC
- Gail Dugger told us about how her teachers came in voluntarily to teach FALs to the parents

A principal can accomplish nothing in a school except what they accomplish with and through their teachers.
