Making Schools Work Conference

Nashville, TN | July 14-17

SREB | School
Improvement

About SREB

The Southern Regional Education Board works with states to improve public education at every level, from early childhood through doctoral education and the workforce.

- We help policymakers make informed decisions by providing independent, accurate data and recommendations.
- We help educators strengthen student learning with professional development, coaching, proven practices and curricula.
- And we help educators share scarce resources to accomplish more together than they could alone.

SREB is a nonpartisan, nonprofit interstate compact headquartered in Atlanta. Our work is funded by appropriations from our states, as well as by contracts and grants from foundations and from local, state and federal agencies.

The nation's first regional interstate compact for education, SREB was created in 1948 by Southern governors and legislators who recognized the link between education and economic vitality.

Making Schools Work

SREB's Making Schools Work school improvement process employs a distributed leadership approach to involve the whole school in identifying problems of practice that impact student engagement and achievement and developing plans to solve them.

With designs for elementary grades, middle grades, high schools and technology centers, Making Schools Work empowers school teams to create improvement plans that address five focus areas:

- motivating students through engaging instruction
- aligning curricula with state readiness standards
- ensuring that students can explore careers and complete career pathways that align with their interests and aptitudes
- providing student supports that promote readiness
- creating and supporting cultures of continuous improvement

What Makes It Work — Our Problem-Solving Process

In schools that adopt Making Schools Work, focus teams of teachers, counselors and school leaders examine school and classroom practices and student outcomes related to the five focus areas.

Our facilitated problem-solving process draws on engineering design principles to support focus teams as they determine actions to take to foster supportive learning environments, integrate academic and technical content, improve student achievement and empower youth to explore and achieve their career goals.

About Sponsoring at the Conference

The Southern Regional Education Board invites you to connect with thousands of K-12 general education teachers, career and technical education teachers, and school, district and state leaders in Nashville, Tennessee, July 14-17 at SREB's annual Making Schools Work Conference.

For over 30 years, SREB has sponsored the nation's premier professional learning event for 4,000+ teachers, counselors, principals, technology center directors, and state and district education agency personnel.

Sponsorship Overview

We invite you to review the sponsorship opportunities outlined in this guide to find the best fit for your company's goals and visibility needs. Each sponsorship package and individual option includes specific details about benefits, recognition, and investment levels. Please take the time to read through each offering carefully to understand the value and exposure your organization will receive as a conference sponsor.

As our conference continues to grow and evolve, so do our partnership opportunities. This year, we're introducing a refreshed sponsorship structure that offers greater focus, flexibility and visibility for our partners. Changes include:

- Varied Vendor Opportunities: To create a more engaging and interactive experience, we have moved away from our traditional exhibit hall format. Instead, sponsors will connect with attendees through integrated opportunities woven throughout the conference experience.
- Conference-Specific Packages: We are now offering packages, a group of which are tailored specifically for the Making Schools Work Conference, ensuring your investment aligns directly with the audiences and programming most relevant to your mission.
- Individual Sponsorship Items: A range of à la carte sponsorships — including branded materials along with attendee engagement and networking opportunities — allows you to customize your participation based on your organization's goals.
- Learning Community Packages: These packages are designed to support our new offering, Learning Communities. This group of offerings allows for targeted visibility and engagement with participants in a designated, high-impact setting.

Partner With Us

With a wide range of sponsorship opportunities, promotional items and special events, the Making Schools Work Conference offers great value for every marketing budget. Sponsorships are an ideal way to increase your company's visibility with educators and decision-makers at the nation's premier professional learning event for school improvement.

Sponsorship	Package Details
* First keynote session	Sponsor our opening general session and your company's representative will introduce our keynote speaker. Your company's name and logo will be featured in the conference program, on screens during the general session, on print signage throughout the conference, on the conference website and in the app.
* Second keynote session	Sponsor our closing general session and your company's representative will help introduce our keynote speaker. Your company's name and logo will be featured in the conference program, on screens at the closing general session, on electronic and print signage throughout the conference, on the conference website and in the app.
* Ideation station	Put your business in front of thousands of conference attendees. The Ideation Station is a dynamic and engaging zone designed to inspire creativity, connection and community impact. This interactive area features three distinct experiences, offering sponsors exceptional visibility and engagement opportunities throughout the event: ● Make and Donate Corner: An engaging place for attendees to create items such as flashcards and fidget spinners to donate to a local city school, fostering collaboration and giving back to the community. ● Lounge Area: A comfortable and inviting space where attendees can relax, recharge, and network with peers in a casual setting. ● SREB Learning Lounge: A cozy presentation zone featuring casual seating and a TV display, where SREB will lead sessions and discussions throughout the day, alongside concurrent breakout sessions.
* Conference bags	As a conference bag sponsor, your company's logo will be prominently featured on the side of the stadium bag (clear bag) along with the conference logo, providing highly visible brand exposure to each attendee as they receive their bag from the registration lobby. Your company logo will also be featured in the printed program.
* Conference lanyards	See your company's logo worn by thousands of attendees at the Making Schools Work Conference when you sponsor SREB's conference lanyards! Your company logo will also be featured in the printed program.
* Pacesetter award winners	Grab the attention of our attendees by headlining our award winners' reception, networking with these top attendees and presenting information to them. Your company name and logo will be featured during the celebration and a representative from your company will have an opportunity to share information about your products as well as have the company logo featured in the program and on conference signage.
* Prop wall	Co-branded with SREB's logo, your brand will be featured on a high-visibility, engaging installation where attendees mark their presence, take pictures and share their conference experience. The prop wall is a must-visit destination and will be prominently displayed in one of the lobbies. Note: the logo file will need to be submitted as a PNG and EPS and submitted in both black and white versions.

* This item is a part of a package and cannot be purchased independently.

Individual Sponsorships

Sponsorship	Details	Price
Conference internet	Your company's name and logo will be featured on screens throughout the conference, on electronic and print signage, inclusive of the program, throughout the conference for the duration of the event, on the conference website and in the app.	$13,000
After-hour networking receptions	There are opportunities for companies to host a reception for attendees, after conference hours, allowing for networking and social activities. Though SREB will manage attendance registration, advertising and reminders, these events will not be hosted by SREB . Event details must be submitted for approval.	Prices TBD, depending on details and location.
Project-based learning playground sponsor	Enjoy a presence in our project-based learning center where activities, discussions and demonstrations focus on hands-on learning. Your company will deliver two sessions. Company name and logo will be featured in the conference program, on electronic and print signage throughout the conference, on the conference website and in the app. Fun, hands-on sessions in our PBL Playground will spotlight how this interdisciplinary approach to instruction excites and engages students and frees teachers to be facilitators of learning. Teachers will be able to bring projects back to their students. Please expect an email from conference leadership.	$2,000
Workshop sponsor	This is an opportunity to build out space for hands-on demonstrations and workshops. Examples include but are not limited to makerspace, STEM and STEAM experiments, relaxation rooms, laptop stations for software exploration or team-building activities to take back to the classroom. Included in the sponsorship price are signage, tables and chairs.* * Electricity depends upon finalized needs.	$8,000 - $12,000 The final price to be determined based on finalized needs
Charging station lounge	Sponsor a lounge for attendees to relax and take a break from walking the convention hall floors. Details of the lounge include a carpeted space with: One charging countertop with four powerstrips and eight outlets, a branded cling to encompass the countertop and two branded panels — one on each side, six countertop chairs, two side chairs, one coffee table, one sofa. The company that purchases the charging lounge will work closely with SREB's event manager on design and dimensions. Please expect an email from conference leadership.	$10,000
Standing charging station	Four opportunities are available – two per floor. Help our attendees keep things running smoothly by allowing them to charge their phones and tablets on the same floor as their breakout session. This branding opportunity allows for small flags on each side of the station to showcase your company information along with branded front panels. Companies that purchase charging stations will work closely with SREB's event manager on design and dimensions. Please expect an email from conference leadership.	$1,100
Conference break	Sponsor our conference morning break. Conference signage with company name at the main break location - two options available.	$10,000

NEW to the Making Schools Work Conference — Learning Communities

At the 2026 conference, you will be able to sponsor one of three learning communities — each offering additional topic-focused sessions and valuable networking opportunities.

Coaching That Works

A community designated for state, district and school administrators; instructional coaches and teacher leaders. Members will focus on strengthening classroom instruction through SREB’s Powerful Coaching Practices.

Leadership That Works

A community comprised of current state, district and school administrators dedicated to building stronger school communities. Members will use SREB’s Powerful Leadership Practices to drive continuous improvement.

Technology Centers That Work

A community consisting of a collaborative group of state, district and school administrators and teachers who lead technology centers. Members will share a commitment to improving student outcomes.

Each Learning Community is a $200 add-on to the general conference registration fee, and it includes all of the following in addition to everything included with the conference registration:

- 3 pre-conference sessions tailored to your community-specific focus area
- Coffee and lunch on Tuesday (general conference registration includes coffee and lunch on the other days)
- 2 featured events with networking opportunities
- 1 deep dive general session with personalized coaching and action planning
- SREB coaching team to provide support and guidance throughout the conference
