

Moving Onward

Next Steps for Education and the Workforce

Join us for three special virtual events on critical issues facing education as states recover from the effects of the pandemic on schools, colleges and the workforce.

The Cost of Completing College Promising Strategies to Support Student Success

June 11, 10 to 11:30 a.m.

The pandemic presented hurdles that kept many students from starting or staying in college. Hear how some persevered and how their institutions found ways to support them.

Speakers

Stacey Bradley, University of South Carolina
Randall Brumfield, Louisiana Board of Regents
Kimberly Gold, North Carolina Community College System
Ontario Wooden, Alcorn State University

Addressing Teacher Shortages to Sustain Education, the Workforce and the Economy

June 11, 2 to 3:30 p.m.

Teachers are essential not only to student learning but also to state economies. Learn how several states are addressing the crisis with comprehensive redesigns for recruiting, licensing, supporting, retaining and compensating teachers.

Speakers

Brenda Berg, BEST NC
Ben Burnett, William Carey University
Glen East, Gulfport Public Schools in Mississippi
Nick Moore, Alabama Governor's Office of Education and Workforce Transformation
Nicole Smith, Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce
Tabari Wallace, North Carolina Department of Public Instruction

A Conversation Among Governors Education and Workforce Recovery

June 16, 2 to 3 p.m.

Governors discuss the central role of education in fueling recovery through workforce and economic development.

Speakers

Governor John Carney, Delaware
Governor Kay Ivey, Alabama
Governor Brian Kemp, Georgia

Register at SREB.org/MovingOnward