

SREB Legislative Advisory Council 2021 Winter Meeting

Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center
Atlanta, Georgia
December 6–7

Agenda

All program sessions, including joint sessions, are in Conference 4.

Monday, December 6

11:00- 1:00 p.m. Lunch available in the Conference Dining Room

1:00- 2:15 p.m. Legislative Session 2022 Forecast

Legislators will share perspectives on their upcoming 2022 sessions, and education topics of importance to their states.

Lee Posey, SREB Vice President for State Strategies

2:15-5:00 p.m. Programs to Support Students and Communities*

Georgia Tech staff will introduce us to three innovative programs housed at Tech:

The Partnership for Inclusive Innovation

Debra Lam, Founding Executive Director

The Center for Education Integrating Science, Math and Computing (CEISMC)

Lizanne DeStefano, Ph.D., Professor, School of Psychology, and Executive Director, CEISMC

The Advanced Technology Center

Benjamin Andrews, Statewide Program Manager

joint session with Legislative and Governors' Staff Meeting participants*

6:00 p.m. Reception
The Club Room

6:30 p.m. Dinner
Conference Dining Room

Tuesday, December 7

7:00-8:30 a.m. Breakfast

8:30-9:15 a.m. Council Work Time

Welcome and comments: Legislative Advisory Council Chair, Senator Mamie Locke, Virginia

Presiding: Legislative Advisory Council Vice Chair, Representative Terri Collins, Alabama

9:15-10:15 a.m. SREB's Dual Enrollment Initiative: Initial Findings and the Path Forward*

For nearly two years SREB has been investigating dual enrollment policy and practices across the region and, guided by the Dual Enrollment Initiative Advisory Panel, has identified challenges and promising practices. We will recap the work of the initiative to date, detail plans for the upcoming year, and discuss the research and policy implications raised by the findings of the initiative.

*Jeffrey Grove, State Strategies Program Specialist
Tim Shaughnessy, Career Pathways Program Director*

Location: Conference 4

joint session with Legislative and Governors' Staff Meeting participants*

10:15-10:30 a.m. Break

10:30-11:30 a.m. Elevating the Teaching Profession and Addressing Shortages: Compensation and Other Strategies

Solving the increasing shortage of effective, high-quality teachers requires thoughtful planning and large, systemic changes. Participants will discuss how states can prepare for, plan and invest in transforming the full range of their states' teacher workforce policies.

Megan Boren, Education Project Manager

11:30 a.m. Closing and meeting adjournment
Lunch available in the Conference Dining Room