FAFSA® ENHANCEMENTS AND UPDATES
The Future of FAFSA®

There are two ways to complete the FAFSA® form: the myStudentAid app and a redesigned, mobile-friendly version of fafsa.gov.
Redesigned fafsa.gov

- Fafsa.gov was redesigned so that the site pages will fit the screen size and shape of smartphones or tablets.
- Students and parents can complete the FAFSA form on a mobile device with the same ease as on a computer.
- The questions are displayed in a more user-friendly way, with some now grouped in a different order to ease navigation through the site.
myStudentAid Mobile App Features

The myStudentAid mobile app provides links to the following services:

- FSA ID Profile: manage username and password
- myFederalLoans: view federal student aid history
- myCollegeScorecard: view and compare information about schools
- Contact Us: get in touch with Federal Student Aid contact centers to have your questions answered
- StudentAid.gov: access Federal Student Aid’s key source of information about the federal student aid programs, application process, and loan repayment options

Before You Start

The IRS Data Retrieval Tool will be unavailable from May 25 at 8pm to 7am Eastern time May 26. Students can still complete and submit a FAFSA® form by entering the necessary tax return information manually.

Customers using an Apple device may encounter some errors if the "smart punctuation" feature is on. You can:

ADDITIONAL ENHANCEMENTS FOR 2020-21 START UP

- The question order on FAFSA.gov is being updated to align with myStudentAid.
- The student’s SSN at log in will be masked on FAFSA.gov.
- The SAR will be available in myStudentAid.
- FSA is working with the IRS to make the Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) mobile-responsive version.
IRS CHANGES

FAFSA form is being updated to reflect changes to the 2018 IRS tax forms.

• Addressing elimination of 1040A and 1040EZ.
• Removing exemptions questions.
• Combining untaxed pensions and untaxed portions of IRA distributions questions.

Exemptions questions (38 and 87 on 2019-20 FAFSA form) will be removed.

IRS has combined untaxed portions of IRA distributions with untaxed pensions on IRS forms.

• Untaxed IRA distributions questions (44e and 92e) will now also include untaxed pensions.
  • “Untaxed portions of IRA distributions and pensions from IRS Form 1040 – line 4a minus line 4b. Exclude rollovers. If negative, enter a zero here.”

Data elements that are currently transferred using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) will continue to be transferred as long as the questions remain on the FAFSA form.
MODIFY TYPE OF TAX RETURN RESPONSE OPTIONS

• Type of tax return filed questions (33 and 80) will be modified to remove IRS 1040A or 1040EZ response.
• IRS forms 1040NR and 1040NR-EZ will be added to foreign tax return response.
The elimination of IRS Forms 1040A and 1040EZ required FSA to develop a reasonable proxy for automatic zero (AZ) and simplified needs test (SNT) calculations of the Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

Questions 35 and 82 will be repurposed to ask “Did (or will) you file a Schedule 1 with your 2018 tax return?”

Exact wording of questions will be determined through FAFSA form clearance process.
Under this scholarship, a Pell-eligible student whose parent or guardian died in the line of duty while performing as a public safety officer is eligible to receive a maximum Pell Grant for the award year for which the determination of eligibility is made.

To qualify for this scholarship, a student must be Pell-eligible and have a Pell-eligible EFC and be less than 24 years of age or enrolled at an institution of higher education at the time of his or her parent’s or guardian’s death.

- Financial Aid Administrators will identify applicants who qualify.
- FAA Access to CPS Online will be used to report eligibility to CPS.
- Flag will be carried on ISIR and comment set on SAR.
- COD will receive indicator to allow for proper awarding and disbursing of funds.
Breaking Down Barriers to FAFSA® Form Completion
What are some of the barriers to the financial aid and/or FAFSA® process for students and parents?
Common Barriers

1. Parents do not want to complete the FAFSA (mistrust or misunderstanding of the FAFSA)

2. Student is homeless, in foster care, or does not have contact or live with parents (independent student or special circumstance)

3. Student or parents are undocumented (student is not eligible for federal aid and/or parent thinks they cannot complete the form, international parents, DACA students, eligible noncitizens, etc.)

4. Student or parents have a complicated family or financial situation (divorced or separated parents, parents live aboard, don’t file taxes, unable to use IRS DRT, etc.)

5. Student is selected for verification (randomly or due to factors such as missing/inaccurate info or family/financial/dependency situation)
Parents do not want to complete the FAFSA®

Explain that the information reported on the FAFSA is only used to determine their student’s eligibility for financial aid, by completing the FAFSA they are not obligated to pay their student’s expenses, and if they don’t complete it their dependent student is only eligible for unsubsidized loans from FSA.
Benefits of using the FAFSA4caster:

- Gives you an early estimate of your eligibility for federal student aid
- Can be used if you're not ready to submit a FAFSA® form yet
- Estimates provided can help you plan ahead for college
Student is homeless, in foster care, or does not have contact or live with parents

A student is not required to provide parent information if they are considered an independent student. There is also guidance on our website to help students in special circumstances get the support they need to get through the FAFSA process and work with the financial aid office.
Are you considered an INDEPENDENT STUDENT on the FAFSA® form?

I will be working on a master’s or doctorate program

I am a veteran of the U.S. armed forces

My parents don’t claim me on their taxes

I am currently serving on active duty in the U.S. armed forces

I was born before Jan. 1, 1996*

I live on my own/I pay my own bills

I am paying for college, not my parents

Breaking Down Barriers

Student or parents are undocumented

• Undocumented students, including DACA recipients, are not eligible for federal aid but may be eligible for state institutional, or other financial aid.

• Students should check with their high school counselor or financial aid office to see whether completing the FAFSA form is the way to apply for aid and to see what aid they may be eligible for.

• Check studentaid.gov for list of eligible noncitizens such as U.S. permanent residents with a green card.

• A parent’s citizenship or immigration status does not affect a student’s eligibility for federal student aid. The FAFSA doesn’t even ask about parents’ status.

• The parent cannot get an FSA ID without a SSN or use the mobile app to complete the FAFSA without a FSA ID, but they can still complete the FAFSA at fafsa.gov by using 000-00-0000 in place of the SSN, printing the signature page, and mailing it to the address on the form.
Financial Aid and Undocumented Students

Questions and Answers

The questions and answers that follow provide information about student financial aid for undocumented students as well as guidance for a specific group of undocumented students who have received Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). We have grouped the questions and answers into two categories: “Eligibility for Financial Aid” and “Completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) Form.”

Eligibility for Financial Aid

1. As an undocumented student or DACA student, am I eligible for federal student aid?

   No. Undocumented students, including DACA students, are not eligible for federal student aid. However, you may be eligible for state or college financial aid, in addition to private scholarships.

2. As an undocumented student or DACA student, am I eligible for in-state tuition?

   It depends. In some states, undocumented students, or specifically DACA students, are eligible to receive in-state tuition. Please check with your high school or your college or career school’s financial aid office.

Completing the FAFSA® Form

1. How do I apply for state and college financial aid?

   Most states and colleges use information collected on the FAFSA form to determine whether you’re eligible for aid. However, we first recommend that you check with your high school counselor or your college or career school’s financial aid office to see what types of financial aid you may be eligible to receive and whether completing the FAFSA form is the way to apply for that aid.

2. To complete the FAFSA® form, do I need a Social Security number (SSN)?

   Yes. An SSN is necessary to complete the FAFSA form. If you are completing a FAFSA form online at fafsa.gov or through the myStudentAid mobile app, an SSN is also required to create a username and password called the FSA ID, which can be used to electronically sign the FAFSA form and to access the myStudentAid mobile app.

   Most undocumented students aren’t eligible for an SSN; thus, they cannot complete the FAFSA form. However, DACA students with SSNs can complete the FAFSA form. For information about obtaining an SSN, visit ssa.gov/pubs/deferred_action.pdf.

   If your FAFSA form is rejected due to an issue with your SSN, contact the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY for the deaf or hard of hearing 1-800-325-0778).

   Note: The remainder of the questions and answers in this document focus on completing the FAFSA® form, so the guidance applies only to DACA students with SSNs—not to all undocumented students.

3. Does my parents’ citizenship status affect my eligibility for federal student aid?

   No. Your parents’ citizenship status doesn’t affect your eligibility for federal student aid. In fact, the FAFSA form doesn’t even ask about your parents’ status.
Breaking Down Barriers

Student or parents have a complicated family or financial situation

There are many resources that help families determine who the reporting parent(s) is on the FAFSA and how to report financial and tax information for parents living abroad and other circumstances. Also, students and parents are not required to file taxes or use the IRS DRT in order to complete the FAFSA. Call 1-800-4-FEDAILD to get help with difficult situations.
WHO'S MY PARENT WHEN I FILL OUT THE FAFSA FORM?

Use this guide to figure out which parent's information to include (depending on your family situation).

Are your parents married to each other?

Do your parents live together?

Did you live with one parent more than the other over the past 12 months?

Report information on the FAFSA form for the parent who provided more financial support over the past 12 months or in the last year you received support.

Has this parent remarried?

Report information for both parents on the FAFSA form.

Report information for both parents on the FAFSA form, even if they were never married, are divorced, or are separated.

Report information on the FAFSA form for the parent you lived with more.

You do not need to report additional parent information.

Also report information for your stepparent on the FAFSA form.
Breaking Down Barriers

Student is selected for verification

Remind them that verification does not mean they are in trouble and to provide the financial aid office with requested info by the school’s deadline.

Have students and parents prepare for possible verification even before selection by making sure they have any letters and/or court documents to prove dependency/residency/family status and/or IRS tax transcripts from irs.gov/transcript or a signed copy of income tax return if unable to use IRS DRT.
The IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT)

EASY
Transfer info with the click of a button.

FAST
Instantly retrieve your info.

ACCURATE
Correctly fill in your info.

NOTE: You will know that your federal tax return information has been successfully transferred because the words “Transferred from the IRS” will display in place of the IRS information in your FAFSA form.
Q: Why can’t I see my own tax return information?

A: Your tax return information is no longer visible because of added security and privacy protections. Not displaying your information prevents potential identity thieves from accessing it.
If I enter my tax information manually, will I be able to see it?

Yes. Tax return information that's entered manually will be visible on fafsa.gov and on your Student Aid Report (SAR).
Why do I have to submit my 2018 tax and income information on my 2020–21 FAFSA form?

This is advantageous for most students and their families because it:

• allows for immediate use of the IRS DRT to transfer financial information for eligible applicants,
• eliminates estimating income and tax information before taxes are filed,
• reduces the need to come back and update a FAFSA form after filing taxes, and

If your 2018 financial situation no longer reflects your current situation, speak with the financial aid office of the school that you plan to attend after submitting your FAFSA form.
Ineligible to Use IRS DRT

- The filer is married, and either the filer or his/her spouse filed as Married Filing Separately.

- The filer is married, and either the filer or his/her spouse filed as Head of Household.

- The parents’ marital status is “Unmarried and both parents living together.”

- The filer filed a Puerto Rican or foreign tax return.
FSA ID

The FSA ID is a username and password combination. You use it to log into our websites and to electronically sign our forms.
Frequently Asked FSA ID Questions

• Do I need an email to create an FSA ID?
  • No, an email is not required to create an FSA ID, but it is highly recommended.

• What if I try to sign my FAFSA with an FSA ID and I get an error message?
  • Your name must be typed exactly how it appears on your social security card on your FSA ID profile and FAFSA. Verify your name is spelled the exact same way in each place and make sure your DOB and SSN are correct as well.

• Do I need a SSN to create an FSA ID?
  • Yes, and your SSN, name, and DOB must all match with what the Social Security Administration has on file.

• Can I still sign the FAFSA form without an FSA ID?
  • Yes, you can print the signature page and mail it in.
The FSA ID enhancements will include the following:

• A user will be able to use his or her verified mobile phone number as his or her FSA ID username when logging into certain Federal Student Aid systems.

• The 18-month password update requirement will be removed. A user will be prompted to change his or her password only during account recovery or for a security event.

• Special characters will no longer be required for FSA ID passwords.
Why can’t I use my mobile phone or email address to retrieve my username or reset my password?

• If you didn’t verify your mobile phone or email address when you registered for your FSA ID, you will not be able to use them to retrieve your username, reset your password, or unlock your account. You will need to answer your challenge questions.

• You can verify your mobile phone number or email address after creating an account by going to the "Manage My FSA ID" tab on the FSA ID site. At the site, enter your username and password. In the “Contact Information” box, select the link to register your mobile phone number or email address. If you are registering your mobile phone number, you will be asked to agree to register by selecting “yes” and to confirm your mobile phone number. If you are verifying your email address, you should receive an email with your secure code. On the following page, you will see a box to enter your secure code.
Reporting Parent Information and Dependency Status
Who’s my parent when I fill out
THE FAFSA FORM?

- Dependent students are required to report parent information.
- On your FAFSA form, "PARENT" means your legal (biological or adoptive) parent or stepparent, or a person that the state has determined to be your legal parent.

If any of the following criteria applies, the student is considered independent:

- 24 years or older
- Married
- Pursuing a Master’s or Doctorate Program
- Children and you provide ½ support
- In foster care since turning the age of 13
- Emancipated minor
- Currently or was in legal guardianship
- Homeless or self supporting and at risk of being homeless
- Veteran or serving active duty in U.S. Armed Forces
Special Circumstances
Special Circumstances

- Some examples of special circumstances are:
  - Parents are incarcerated or deceased
  - Student left home due to an abusive family environment
  - Unsure of parents whereabouts or no contact with parents
- Circumstances must be well documented
- Financial aid office determines dependency status
Student Scenarios
I am the grandmother and legal guardian of a student. Can I fill out the FAFSA form in place of the parent?

Answer: No. Only legal parents (biological, adoptive, as determined by the state) should report parental information on the FAFSA form. Also, being in legal guardianship determined by the court makes this student an independent student who is not required to provide parental information on the FAFSA form.
My parent does not have a Social Security number, but they file taxes with the IRS. Can they use their Taxpayer Identification Number in place of the SSN?

Answer: No. Do NOT enter a Taxpayer Identification Number in the SSN field. If your parent does not have a Social Security number (SSN), you should enter all zeroes for them on the FAFSA form where it asks for that information.
Scenarios

My parents do not want to provide their information on the FAFSA form and are not going to contribute to my college expenses. Is this considered a special circumstance?

Answer: No. However, in situations where your parent refuses to provide their information on the FAFSA and refuses to provide you with any financial support, there is an exception that allows a student to submit the FAFSA without parental information and receive an Unsubsidized Loan only.
I live at home with my mother and stepparent. I know I need to report information about my mother, but do I need to provide information about my stepparent?

Answer: Yes. If you have a stepparent who is married to the legal parent whose information you’re reporting, you must provide information about that stepparent as well.
